Attached are the fiscal year (FY) 2010 Cost-of-Living Adjustments (COLAS) to the SNAP income eligibility standards and deductions for the 48 contiguous States and D.C., Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA), the maximum and minimum allotments for each area remain unchanged for FY 2010. ARRA raised the maximum SNAP allotments by 13.6 percent of the June 2008 value of the Thrifty Food Plan (TFP) and provided that benefits could not decline below this level. Although final data are not yet available, Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) projects that the Alaska and Hawaii maximum and minimum allotments will also remain unchanged for FY 2010 because of the stimulus provisions. If this is not the case once final data are released, FNS will issue revised numbers for these areas.

Although the TFP for the reference family of four decreased 0.83 percent from June 2008 to June 2009, ARRA protects SNAP households from this erosion in purchasing power. To illustrate, the maximum monthly allotment for a 4-person household in the 48 States and DC is currently $668 and will remain unchanged for FY 2010. In the absence of ARRA, the maximum allotment for a 4-person household would have declined to $583 for FY 2010, a $5 decline from the pre-ARRA FY 2009 maximum allotment of $588. Thus, ARRA resulted in an overall increase of $85 in SNAP benefits.

In addition, the amount of the minimum standard deduction, which is indexed to inflation beginning FY 2010, decreased from $144 to $141 a month for household sizes 1 through 3 in the 48 States and DC. Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, and the USVI also experienced declines in the minimum standard deduction amounts for certain household sizes.

These COLAS go into effect on October 1, 2009. State agencies with questions regarding these adjustments should contact their respective Regional Office representatives. Regional office staff with questions should contact their liaisons in the Certification Policy Branch.
