Case number ends in: 7 = benefits available on the 7th of the month

Case number ends in: 8 = benefits available on the 8th of the month

Case number ends in: 9 = benefits available on the 9th of the month

For NYC cases, benefit postings are spread out over 13 different days that are not Sundays or holidays, during the first two weeks of each month.

The actual dates change from one month to the next, so NYC publishes a six-month schedule showing the exact availability dates.

Visit <http://www.fns.usda.gov/sites/default/files/NYC-Issuance-Schedule.pdf> to see the current schedule. This is also based on the last digit of the Case Number. Find the digit in the first column of the schedule. That row lists the monthly deposit dates for your benefits over the six-month period. SNAP deposits are made during the A Cycle of each month.
